Growing Crimes Against Women

*371. SHRI GAYA SINGH :

SHRI NAGENDRA NATH OJHA :

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the findings of the report released by the National Crime Records Bureau that the rate of growing crimes against women in the country would be faster than that of the population by 2010;

(b) if so, the details of the different categories of crime against women committed in important cities of the country in 1999; and

(c) what steps are proposed to be taken to check the crimes against women ?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI) : (a) The National Crime Records Bureau has recently released its annual publication entitled "Crime in India 1998". The publication is based on the figures of actual crimes registered in the country. It does not contain any estimated figures in respect of crimes.

(b) The information received from the National Crime Records Bureau in this regard is enclosed as Annexure [See Appendix 189, Annexure No. 71].

(c) 'Public Order' and 'Police' are State subjects as per the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India and, as such, registration, investigation, detection and prevention of crime is primarily the responsibility of the State Governments. However, the Central Government has, from time to time, been writing to the State Governments stressing upon them the need to take preventive, punitive and rehabilitative measures in connection with crimes against women, children and other vulnerable sections of the society. The Ministry of Home Affairs is also presently considering a proposal to provide death as one of the penalties for the offence of rape.
